Attendance

Attendance is mandatory to receive financial aid. Students must attend classes on a regular basis and complete them to continue to receive financial aid. If a student stops attending part or all of his/her classes, he/she may have to repay part or all of the financial aid he/she has received.